We meet every Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m. in the K of C Hall, across from the Church Parking lot. Thirty minutes of Coffee and Fellowship followed by a 30-minute video and group discussion. Join us afterward for 9:00 a.m. Mass. Don't worry if you can't come every Saturday, you are most welcome to drop in and out as your schedule permits. A great way to leave the stress of the week behind.

HOMESCHOOLER GATHERING – FIRST FRIDAYS

YOUTH GROUP KICKOFF

THIS YEAR OUR YOUTH GROUP WILL MEET ON SUNDAYS FROM 6-8PM.

THEOLOGY OF THE BODY:

FR. FERGUSON ANSWERS OUR YOUTH

“WHY DO PEOPLE HAVE KIDS IF THEY AREN'T MARRIED YET?”

Yeah, it's really best to have children in the context of a healthy marriage. And it's not because there's some “rule” you have to follow. It just makes sense. A wedding (that's a sacrament! a “contact point” with God!) allows a man and a woman publicly to say that they each commit their whole lives to the other... totally! And that sacrament makes “visible” the kind of love God is: total, faithful, free, and fruitful. And THEN, when the bride and groom have sex after the wedding, it “seals” their commitment. Their bodies literally say the same thing their lips said at the wedding: “Honey, I give myself TOTALLY to you!” And any children that may come from their sexual union are a “fruit” of that total commitment of love. Now, why is it that some couples only “live together” and have sex – and kids – without ever getting married first? There can be lots of reasons. Maybe they just don't understand the beauty and logic of getting married first. Maybe sometimes they felt “pressured” by various circumstances to do so. We don't want to say that they are “bad people” because of it, but we do need to say that it definitely makes more sense to get married first and THEN have sex and kids. If it gets tempting for you as you get older to want to have sex with someone without marrying them, talk to God honestly about those desires. Desire for sexual union is not a bad thing (it's actually designed by God to be a wonderful thing!), but like any other desires you have, you have to direct it in a healthy way for it to have the true meaning it's meant to have.

ST. MARY 55+ CLUB – AUGUST EVENTS

We meet every Tuesday at 1:00 p.m.! Join us for fellowship throughout the year:

- August 19: Shale Hollow Park for lunch and walk.
- August 26: Fun games and cards.

Mary, Queen of Heaven | Brother Francis

Based on the historical records and the personal testimony of his fellow friars, this is the amazing true story of the life of the famous stigmatic monk, St. Padre Pio, a contemporary saint who died in 1968. Blessed with incredible spiritual gifts, including healing, bi-location, reading of souls, and the stigmatic wounds, Padre Pio was a powerful witness for Christ, and a great spiritual guide to countless souls for over fifty years.

FOOD FOR THE POOR

Please join us this weekend to hear Rev. Edward J. Hanlon speak at all our services about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean.

Fr. Hanlon will share personal witness about Food for the Poor's mission to care for the destitute as a means of living out the Gospel mandate to love one another.

Fr. Hanlon earned his B.A. from St. John's Seminary in Brighton, MA. He went on to attain his Master's in Divinity from Immaculate Conception Seminary in South Orange, NJ in 1984. Fr. Ed was ordained in June 1986 and has been associate pastor in 5 parishes and pastor at 2 parishes in the Diocese of Worcester. He retired in 2022.

Please join us in welcoming Fr. Hanlon.

FESTIVAL REVENUE UPDATE

We have the financial numbers from the 2025 Festival! We managed to bring in a net $68,723.67 in fundraising. Wow! Of course, this was only possible due to the many people and parish ministries who volunteered. We especially want to thank our festival committee members, sponsors and volunteers!

BRING CHRIST TO THE HOMEBOUND

We're seeking Extraordinary Ministers of Communion (EMoCs) – or those interested in becoming one– to bring the Eucharist to parishioners in nursing homes or private homes. Visits are typically weekly and take place after the Mass you attend, with flexible scheduling. This is a meaningful way to share Christ's presence with those who can no longer attend Mass. To learn more or volunteer, contact Carol Kuhns at ckuhns@delawarestmary.org.

REQUIRED VOLUNTEER TRAINING

All new school and parish volunteers working with children or vulnerable adults must complete Protecting God's Children (PGC) training and a background check.

Upcoming Zoom sessions (in English) from the Diocese:

- Wednesday, August 20 at 4:00 p.m.
- Thursday, August 21 at 6:00 p.m.
- Register at: columbuscatholic.org/safe (click the green VIRTUS button).

An in-person session at St. Mary will be offered in September – details coming soon. Questions? Contact Janet Conroy at jconroy@delawarestmary.org or 740-363-4641, ext. 119.

FARMER'S MARKET CONTINUES

The Farmers Market continues after Sunday morning Masses through the harvest season. Parish farmers donate surplus produce, and all cash donations support those in need and the Pregnancy Resource of Delaware. "Always take what you like and leave what you like."

SUNDAY STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

Today's readings set a high bar for us Christian stewards, reminding us that a stewardship way of life is meant to be a challenging way of life.

In the second reading, from the Letter to the Hebrews, we are told to live as Christ lived. And how did Christ live? "For the sake of the joy that lay before Him He endured the cross." If we are tempted to complain about the sufferings we must endure in living as Christ's disciples, we are told, "In your struggle against sin you have not yet resisted to the point of shedding blood." In other words, "If you're not bleeding, what are you complaining about?" That is quite a high bar!

The Gospel reading from Luke continues this challenging theme. Our Lord tells His disciples "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing." A couple of verses later Jesus adds, "Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division."

Jesus' life on this earth and the message He brought were not meant to simply make us feel good. In fact, His words can make us downright uncomfortable at times. That's because His Good News (and it is indeed good news!) is meant to change us, to make saints of us.

The stewardship way of life sets a high bar indeed. But deeply embraced, this way of life focused on God and others will make us the saints we are called to be.
